

CHORAL GROUP PROFILE

INCIPIO

Description

Our mission is simple: to give young singers an opportunity to perform groundbreaking, evocative music in a group that prepares them for the professional vocal world. Our singers, who come from a diverse array of backgrounds united by their musicianship, include several young music educators, choristers, and professional performers from around Western New York. Founded in 2022, INCIPIO is quickly becoming recognized as one of the foremost vocal ensembles in Western New York.

Directors Julia Anne Cordani and Elizabeth Vennari

Julia Anne Cordani and Elizabeth Vennari, INCIPIO co-directors, want to enrich the musical experiences of singers in WNY with a fresh perspective on music-making in the modern age. Graduates of the University at Buffalo School of Music, they were founding members of the UB Chamber Singers and participated actively in the UB vocal and choral scene. After undergrad, Julia earned her masters in performance and became a teacher/soloist, and Elizabeth now works as lead recruiter at Odoo Buffalo.

Rehearsal Time and Location

Rehearsals are scheduled internally, private to members.

Annual Events

INCIPIO performs between two and four concerts annually, usually in November, December, March, and June. Our programming seeks to challenge choral norms and push boundaries, including unique selections from movies, Broadway, and video games, as well as original in-house arrangements tailored to the group's specific voices.

Audition Information

We aim to welcome a newer, younger audience into the exciting world of choral music, but also want to cater our programming to give choral music lovers of all ages and backgrounds something to enjoy. If you love the soundscapes of the human voice, there will be something for you to love at each and every INCIPIO concert. Audition required.
